REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

I herewith submit my sixth annual report. The statistical tables which form a part of this report give a brief summary of the work and progress of the schools. The facts and comparisons shown merit careful consideration.

Due to epidemics of measles and whooping cough our attendance record is below the standard of recent years. Under these conditions the regular school work must of necessity be interrupted, and a part of the time lost cannot be made up without a great deal of difficulty. In a number of cases deficiencies have to be carried over to the following year. We do appreciate the hearty co-operation of the children and their parents in meeting this difficult situation.

The High School enrollment for the current year shows an increase of six pupils from the total of last year. There will probably be further increase before the end of the year.

We have been able to relieve crowded conditions in the Junior High by using High School room which, owing to the smaller High School enrollment, was available. The arrangement as worked out is fairly satisfactory, and will probably remain so for some time. The home economics department in cooking and sewing is overcrowded. We find it very difficult to do the work necessary to meet generally accepted standards. It seems impossible to remedy this situation, except by radical changes in the High School building or by making some provision for rooms outside.

The enrollment for the current year in the village schools, below the Junior High, grades 7 and 8, is less by 30 pupils than that of last year. The principal decrease in numbers is in Contoocook grades 5 and 6 and 1 and 2. Present indications are for an enrollment of about the same in both of these rooms for next year, and a smaller enrollment in grades 3 and 4.

The enrollment in our five rural schools for the current year is 60, practically the same as last year. During every school year some children move away and others come in; consequently the enrollment at the end of the year is larger than at the time of closing this report.

There are two approved private schools in the Hopkinton District this year. The Lawson-Miles private school, 7 pupils, located in the west part of the town, near the Warner line, and the Edwards private school, 1 pupil, located in Contoocook.

The school buildings are generally in good condition. This is especially true of the High School building. The thorough and complete renovation of last summer will not have to be repeated for several years.

If we continue the school at Hatfield, it will be necessary to refinish the walls, ceiling and woodwork of the school room. It would be well to paint the entire building. The West Hopkinton building is badly in need of a coat of paint and some interior refinishing. Farrington Corner needs interior refinishing. The light in this school room could be greatly improved by cutting the brush and some of the small trees which have grown up on two sides of the building.

The work of the agricultural department of the Hopkinton High School is worthy of special mention at this time. The tomato and other plants grown in the school hotbed, for the past two years, have been a real service to the community. Their quality is shown by the excellent final results obtained. The school hotbed is of cement construction, made by the boys under the guidance of their teacher. Ivan Bohanan's forestry project and Francis Blanchard's farm shop take first place in the school agricultural work of the State. A first class hen house built for one of their number, by the agricultural boys, is still further proof of the practical nature of this work.

At the present time we have an unusually large number, 21 pupils, enrolled in our village and rural schools, in grades 7 and 8, and 32 in the Junior High at Contoocook. This means that 53 of our children, within the next two years, will be eligible for admission to the High School, 32 of whom have had the advantages of a two grade room in close association with High School work and activities for two years.

In reference to this difficult problem of different training and consequent adjustments, I wish to state that it is the constant aim of the teachers and superintendents to give the children of these grades, scattered through six different village and rural schools, some of the advantages of the Junior High, and other help as seems necessary both before and after entering High School, so that in spite of seeming handicaps, they may do their work in a satisfactory manner.

In closing I wish to express appreciation for the hearty support and co-operation of parents and all concerned with the great work of public education.

Respectfully submitted,

GAIUS H. BARRETT, Superintendent.
